Calling All Technicians-Give Us Your Feedback for Ottobock Education!

Ottobock is excited to offer Technician training, complete with CEUs. To help us plan the most appropriate courses, please take a moment to fill out a brief (5 minute) survey and let us know your thoughts. Take survey.

New Distribution Channels for Ottobock Components

Beginning this month, you can find a wide selection of Ottobock components through Cascade Orthotic and Prosthetic Supplies and PEL Supply Company. These two distributors began carrying Ottobock Structural Components, select Knees, Cosmetic Covers and Materials for socket fabrication. This expands your access to Ottobock products that had been available through SPS and directly from Ottobock.

PDAC Approved Suspension Sleeve for Xeleton

The Xeleton knee brace provides optimal rehabilitation support following a cruciate ligament injury, rupture or surgery. Its functional 4-point rigid frame design helps prevent migration and provides a high degree of stability while limiting tibial subluxation. A new PDAC approved Suspension Sleeve enhances the Xeleton's anti-migration properties. Find out more.
